Yes, provided ...

“Upon effectivity of this Code, no other JV guidelines, PPP guidelines, codes, or ordinances, whatsoever may be enacted, issued and/or used by any government entity to enter into PPPs, except those that are enacted, issued, and/or used in accordance with this Code and its IRR.”

(Last paragraph, Section 35, PPP Code)

- Under the Principle of Subordinate Legislation and Hierarchy of Policies, local ordinances must not be inconsistent with statutes such as the PPP Code.
- This is an implied restriction in local legislation and rule-making.
- However, the restriction under the PPP Code cannot prohibit LGUs from enacting PPP ordinances provided these will not be in conflict with the PPP Code.
- The LGUs’ power to legislate is founded on the Constitution.
- For example, LGUs can enact ordinances on management and service contracts, corporatization and LGU subsidiaries since these PPP schemes are not covered the PPP Code.
